OF THE STATE OF MONTANA

On August 24, 2005, Edwin Taylor (Taylor) filed a complaint with the Department of Labor and Industry (Department) alleging that the Department of Public Health and Human Services discriminated based on age and disability when it failed to hire him for an Eligibility Examiner position. Following an informal investigation, the Department determined that a preponderance of the evidence did not support Taylor's allegations of unlawful discrimination and the Department issued a Notice of Dismissal. Taylor filed objections with the Montana Human Rights Commission (Commission). The Commission considered the matter on May 8, 2006.

The Commission will review a decision of the Department to dismiss a complaint using an abuse of discretion standard. Mont. Code Ann. § 49-2-509(4)(2003); Admin. R. Mont. 24.9.1714(3). After careful and due consideration, the Commission concludes the determination of the Department to dismiss the complaint is sufficiently supported by the record and there was no abuse of discretion.

A party may ask a district court to review a decision of the Commission to affirm the dismissal of a complaint. Admin. R. Mont. 24.9.1714(7); See also Mont. Code Ann. § 2-4-702. If a charging party chooses to commence a civil action, charging party has 90 days after the receipt of this order to petition a district court, in the district where the alleged violation occurred, for the appropriate relief. Mont. Code Ann. § 49-2-509(5) (2003); Admin. R. Mont. 24.9.1714(5). If a charging party fails to commence a civil action within 90 days, the claim is time barred. Id.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that Burton Holt's objection is overruled. The Commission adopts and affirms the determination of the Human Rights Bureau to dismiss the complaint.

DATED this ____ day of May 2006.
